INDEX TO VOL. LXXXVI

The titles of articles are printed in italics

AFT

AFTERMATH of War, 364–396
Agriculture and the Brown Rat, 130–142
Allenby's Victories and Britain's Opportunity, 1017–25
Allied Policy and Russia, 426–435
Ambassadors, Consuls, and Foreign Service Examination, 731–746
America and the Social Evil, 153–163
American collectors and Britain's literary heirlooms, 262–265
Amirs, The Last of the, 1140-50
Andrews (E.), William Shakespeare and the Earl of Derby, 79–89
Angling for the Soldier's Vote, 845–850
Anti-militarism and the duty of a soldier, 631–639
Arabi Pasha and British Protectorate of Egypt, 225–236
Arabia, The Future of, 654–664
Aristotle as a dramatic critic, 528–534
Armenians and Djemal Pasha, 1151-61
Armistice anniversary, commemorative silence, 1202-6
Arran (Earl of), Ireland and England, 40–46
Aston (Major-Gen. Sir George), Field-Marshal Viscount French's '1914,' 188–200; 'Military' and 'Militarist,' 631–639
Austen (Jane), George Eliot, and boys of fiction, 859–869
Australia and the Empire, 483–492

BAILLIE-GROHMAN (W. A.), Sport: a Mirror of National Character, 1125-39
Balkans, The Scramble for the, 640–653
Barker (J. Ellis), Hard Times Ahead, 377–396
Barry (Canon William), The Turks, Cardinal Newman, and the Council of Ten, 210–224
Bashford (Major Lindsay), Allenby's Victories and Britain's Opportunity, 1017–25
Battleships, obsolete or otherwise, 620–630
Bechhofer (C. E.), The Menace of a Germanised Russia, 783–788

BUT

Belgium and Holland and the Freedom of the Scheldt, 585–594 1170-1179
Bensusan (S. L.), Agriculture and the Brown Rat, 130–142
Better England, A—not a Worse, 1093 1016
Birds: the Way to Avernus, 910–919
Blakesley (John H.), Education, its Aims and Means, 535–546
Bliss (Frederick), Djemal Pasha: a Portrait, 1151-61
Bludgeon of criticism, 123–129
Blyth (Lord), Shall we keep our Commercial Supremacy? 824–835
Boas (Frederick S.), Selling the Nation's Heirlooms, 262–265
Bolshevism and Allied policy in Russia, 410–425; and Russian democracy, 881–888
Bolshevism, The Peril of, 747–759
Bone (Prof. William A.), Coal and Health, 334–354
Bookshelf, A, 870–880
Bouisse (Emma), Another German Plot Unmasked, 789–796
Bourchier (James D.), The Scramble for the Balkans, 640–653
Bowling, batting, and level cricket pitches, 547–553
Boys of George Eliot, 859–869
Bradley (Rose M.), William Wray Skilbeck, 595–608; Women after the War, 836–844
Britain's Opportunity, Allenby's Victories, 1017–25
British Army at Cologne and manners of Germans, 201–209
British Raj and self-government in India, 444–456
British soldier three times captive of Germans, 309–320
Brontë (Emily), 677–687
Brooks (Sydney), Mr. Wilson and the Treaty, 1180–88
Brosnan (Rev. Joseph Brodie), Fact versus Dogma: a Roman Catholic view, 1100-13
Brown Rat, Agriculture and, 130–142
Butler (Dr. A. J.), The Fortunes of Egypt, 225–236

BUT

Butler (Sir Geoffrey), A Forgotten League of Nations, 355–363

CAMMAERTS (Emile), Belgium and Holland and the Freedom of the Scheldt, 585–594
Canada's Fertile Northland, 469–482
Capital Facts about Ireland, 493–504
Carlyle and his Critics, 505–514
Carranza's rule in Mexico and confiscation of foreigners' property, 899–909
Catholic teaching and Spiritualism, 1100–13
Celtic Ireland and Saxon rule, 493–504
Ceuta, shall we exchange Gibraltar for it? 181–187
Chadwick (Mrs. Ellis), Emily Brontë, 677–687
Chance (Wade), A Father at the Grave of his Son, 987–988
Chestermaz (Capt. Hugh), With a Train Company in France, 567–574
Chevaline, or horse-flesh for human food, 703–712
Christ versus Jupiter, a mystery play, 1065-95
Church of the Future: an Eirenicon, 90–102
Cippico (Dr. Antonio), An All-Embracing Genius: Leonardo da Vinci, 1053–1064
Citizen army for National Defence, 397–409
Clarke (Rev. A. H. T.), The Church of the Future: an Eirenicon, 90–102
Club Secretary on Clubs, 143–152
Coal and Health, 334–354
Coalition Government, Acid Tests of, 989–1002
Cobbett and Meredith, Country of, 1042–52
Collis (W. Morris) and A. D. McLaren, The War of Ideas, 1114–24
Colvile (Capt. Kenneth N.), Shakespeare's First Critical Editor, 266–279
Colvin (Sir Elliot), The Changing Scene in India, 444–456
Commercial Supremacy, Our, Shall we keep it? 824–835
Consciousness and evolution of sex, 280–296
Constitutional Government for Russia, Allies' help towards, 436–443
Consular and Diplomatic Services, Training for, 731–746
'Controlled Transport,' 245–249
Cook (Sir Theodore), A German Quixote, 957–970

EX

Cottrell (Lieut.-Col. R. F.), A Plea for National Defence, 397–409
Cox (Paymaster Lieut.-Commander Cyril), Future of Arabia, 654–664
Cricket Pitch, 547–553
Cromwell (Oliver), alleged youthful delinquencies, 688–696
Crucé (Emerich), his book on an international league for peace, 355–363

DALMATIA, Fiume, Italians and Yugo-Slavs, 889–898
Death, The Change after, 1096–1113
Dell (Anthony), Serbia To-day and To-morrow, 1162–69
Delmer (F. Sefton), Ludendorff, Tannenberg, and the Marne, 945–956
Demobilised soldiers and employment of women, 836–844
Democracy in Russia: and the Peasants' Land Hunger, 881–888
Derby (Earl of), William Shakespeare and the, 79–89
Devotion, patriotism, and reconstruction of communal life, 920–929
Dewar (George A. B.), Peace according to Versailles, 1–17; William Wray Skilbeck, 595–608; A Bookshelf, 870–880
Diamond Jubilee of the opening of Japan, 47–65
Diplomatic Service, The, 713–730
Djemal Pasha: a Portrait, 1151–61
Dramatic Criticism, Two Thousand Years of, 528–534
Dunraven (Earl of), The Urgency of Ireland, 237–244
Dutch and Belgian claims on the Scheldt, 585–594, 1170–79

EAST, Our Guardianship in the, 457–468
Eastern Question, resettlement of the Balkans, 640–653
Eastern religions and wider outlook, 930–944
Eating as a fine art, 515–527
Education: Aims and Means, 535–546
Education of the Fighting Services, 397–409
Egypt, The Fortunes of, 225–236
Emily Brontë, 677–687
Enemy in our Midst, 697–702
England and Islam, 116–122
Erzberger, Peace according to, 18–23
Ether and curvature of light, 1189–1201
Ewart (Captain Wilfrid), The Young Men of England, 797–811
Ex-Service men and the wiles of politicians, 845–850

EX

Ex-Emperor William and Napoleonic Precedent, 575–584

FACT versus Dogma: a Roman Catholic View, 1100–13
Farmers and milk supply, 554–566
Father, A, at the Grave of his Son, 987–988
Feisal (Emir) and government of Syria, 654–664
Fifth Army, Truth about, March–April 1918, 971–986, 1026–41
Fisher (Lord) and scrapping of obsolete battleships, 620–630
Food, Poetry and Prose of, 515–527
Forgotten Immortal, 164–170
Franchise and Functions in India, 171–180
Frederick the Great, Thomas Carlyle, and anti-German critics, 505–514
French's (Field-Marshal Viscount) '1914,' 188–200
Frewen (Moreton), Canada's Fertile Northland, 469–482; W. Wray Skilbeck, 595–608
Frodsham (Bishop), William Wray Skilbeck, 595–608
Future of Arabia, 654–664

GARCKE (E.), Pooling of Profits, 66–78
Gardiner (Linda), Birds, and the Way to Avernus, 910–919
George Eliot, The Boys of, 859–869
German Generals on their failures, 945–956
German methods and Thomas Carlyle's writings, 505–514
German Plot Unmasked, 789–796
German Professors, The, 321–333
German Question, A, 957–970
German, The Old, Unchanged, 202–209
Germanised Russia, Menace of a, 783–788
Germanism, Bolshevism, Socialism, enemies of civilisation, 747–759
Germans, Three Times a Prisoner of the, 309–320
Germany and the Peace terms, 1–39
Gibraltar and Ceuta, 181–187
Giles (Robert), The Last of the Amirs, 1040–50
Girls in uniform and the returned soldier, 836–844
Gough (General), the Fifth Army, and Ludendorff at St. Quentin, 971–986, 1026–41
Grave Industrial Problem: Output and Reward, 812–823
Gravity, The New Theory of, 1189–1201

IRE

Green (F. E.), Surrey in Literature, 1042–52
Green (Walford D.), The Political Situation and the Prime Minister, 609–619
Guardianship in the East, Our, 457–68

HARD Times ahead, 377–386
Harrison (Frederic), William Wray Skilbeck, 201
Heating, ventilation, coal supply, and public health, 334–354
Hedjaz, King of, his aspirations towards an Arab Empire, 654–664
Hinkley (Mrs. W.), 'Not through Eastern Windows only': Plea for a Wider Religious Outlook, 930–944
Hippophagy, 703–712
Hoare (Lieut.-Col. Sir Samuel), Allied Policy and Russia, 426–435; Acid Tests of the Coalition Government, 989–1002
Holdich (Col. Sir Thomas), Afghan Claim to Descent from Israel, 111–115
Holland, Belgium, and the Scheldt, 585–594, 1170–79
Holmes (Edmond G. A.), Religion as the Basis of Social Reconstruction, 920–929
Home Rule, Sinn Fein, and Irish independence, 40–46, 237–244
Hoper (M. Winifred), Some Unpublished Windham Papers, 665–676
Horse-flesh for human food, 703–712
Horses and war transport in France, 567–574
Housman (Laurence) and H. M. Paull, The Unknown Star, 1065–95
Howe (P. P.), Two Thousand Years of Dramatic Criticism, 528–534
Hurst (Major Gerald B.), Angling for the Soldier's Vote, 845–850
Hyndman (H. M.), Scandal of our Milk Supply, 554–566

IDEAS, War of, 1114–24
Immortal, A Forgotten, 164–170
India, Changing Scene in, 444–454
India, Franchise and Functions in, 171–180
Insectivorous birds, Reckless destruction of, 910–919
International Labour Conference at Washington, 772–782
International Trade and our Postal service, 824–835
Ireland and England, 40–46
Ireland and Russia, the acid tests of the Coalition Government, 989–1002
Ireland, Capital Facts about, 493–504

IRE

Ireland, The Urgency of, 237–244
Islam, England and, 116–122
Israelitish descent, Afghan's claims to, 111–115
Italian and Yugo-Slav, Psychology of, 889–898
Italian Art, Leonardo da Vinci, 1053–1064

JAPAN, Yesterday, To-day, and To-morrow? 47–65
Japanese ideals and a 'White Australia,' 483–492
Jerusalem to Cairo, through train, and development of Middle East, 1017–1025
Johnston (Major R. M.), War and Peace, Limited or Unlimited? 34–39

KHAIRPUR, Amir of, and the story of Sind, 1140–50
Knowles (Sir Lees), Hippophagy, 703–712

LABOUR and Capital, Wage system, and division of profits, 66–78
Labour legislation and International Conference at Washington, 772–782
Labour, maximum output and equality of remuneration, 812–823
Late lamented Bludgeon, 123–129
Lathbury (D. C.), William Wray Skilbeck, 595–608
League of Nations, Forgotten, 355–363
Lee-Warner (Roland Paul), Three Times a Prisoner of the Germans, 309–320
Lefranc (Abel), his ascription of Shakespeare's plays to the Sixth Earl of Derby, 79–89
Leonardo da Vinci, 1053–1064
Leyland (John), What of the Navy? 620–630
Libraries and books, 870–880
Lilly (W. S.), Capital Facts about Ireland, 493–504
Lloyd George (Mr.) and the political situation, 609–619
Locomotive driver, A volunteer, during the railway strike, 851–858
Lodge (Sir Oliver), New Theory of Gravity, 1189–1201; views on spiritualism criticised, 1100–13
Logic, A Case for, 1096–1099
Longford (Prof. Joseph H.), Japan Yesterday, To-day, and To-morrow? 47–65
Loveday (Penelope) and William Windham, 656–676
Ludendorff, Tannenberg, and the Marne, 945–956

NAT

Lyttelton (Rev. the Hon. Edward), The Cricket Pitch, 547–553

McILWRAITH (Sir Malcolm), The Diplomatic Service, 731–746
Macleane (Canon), Oliver Cromwell's Wild Oats, 688–696; Martinmas 1919, 1202–6
McTaggart (Lt.-Col. M. F.), Logic: a Case for, 1096–99
Marne battle, German plans which failed, 945–950
Marriott (J. A. R.), Aftermath of War: Teaching of History and its Consolations, 364–376; 'Nationalisers' and the Nation, 760–771
Marshall (Mr. Justice J. E.), Our Guardianship in the East, 457–468
Martinmas 1919, 1202–6
Marwitz's attack on our Fifth Army at St. Quentin, 971–986, 1026–41
Maude (Aylmer), View of a Man fresh from Russia, 436–443
Maxwell-Lyte (Cecil), A Club Secretary on Clubs, 143–152
Menace of Germanised Russia, 783–78
Mexican Anarchy: and British Inaction, 899–909
Middle East, development of, Britain's opportunity, 1017–25
Mikado, The, the Shogun, and Japanese progress, 47–65
'Military' and 'Militarist,' 631–639
Milk Supply, Scandal of our, 554–566
Mineral wealth of France, German exploration of, 789–796
Montagu of Beaulieu (Lord), Controlled Transport, 245–249; On the Footplate, 851–858
Montgomery-Campbell (Margaret), Psychology of Italian and Yugo-Slav, 889–898
Moral Resistance: Lesson of Russian Revolution, 103–110
Morison (Sir Theodore), England and Islam, 116–122
Muhamadan anger at partition of Turkey, 116–122

NAPOLEON'S trial as a precedent for the case of ex-Emperor William, 575–584
National Debt, war taxation, coal shortage, and the future of industries, 377–396
National Defence, Plea for, 397–409
Nationalisation of transport, 245–249
'Nationalisers' and the Nation, 760–771
Nation's Heirlooms, Selling the, 262–265

NAV

Navy, What of the? 620–630
Newbolt (Sir Frank), Speeches, 250–261
Newman (Cardinal), his lectures on history of the Turks, 210–224
Newtonian Astronomy and Dr. Einstein's theories, 1189–1201
Nicolai (Dr.), his 'Biology of the War,' 957–970
Norway and Sweden, Forest resources of, 713–730
'Not through Eastern Windows only': a Plea for a Wider Religious Outlook, 930–944

O'CALLAGHAN (Major-General Sir Desmond), The Enemy in our Midst, 697–702
Oil-wells, British, in Mexico, risk of confiscation, 899–909
Oliver Cromwell's Wild Oats, 688–696
Omond (G. W. T.), The Peace Conference and the Disappointment of Belgium, 1170–79
On the Footplate, 851–858
Oratory, political and post-prandial, 250–261
Osborn (E. B.), The Police Mutiny, 410–425
Ottoman Empire, its past and its future, 2102–24
Our Visits to this World, 297–308
Out of their own Mouths,' 945–970
Output and Reward, Grave Industrial Problem, 812–823

PARSONS (Mrs. Clement), Poetry and Prose of Food, 515–527
Paull (H. M.), A Forgotten Immortal, 164–170; and Laurence Housman, The Unknown Star, 1065–95
Peace Conference and the Disappointment of Belgium, 1170–79
Peace—or Truce? 1–39
Penance during the Commonwealth, 688–696
Picardian grave, A father's lament, 987–8
Picton-Turbervill (Edith), America and the Social Evil, 153–163
Playwriters and their critics, 528–534
Poetry and Prose of Food, 515–527
Poliakoff (Vladimir), Moral Resistance: Lesson of Russian Revolution, 103–110; Democracy in Russia: and Peasants' Land Hunger, 881–888
Police Mutiny, 410–425
Political Situation and the Prime Minister, 609–619
Pooling of Profits, 66–78
Postal and telegraphic services and our trade supremacy, 824–835

SMO

Protestantism, Catholicism, and the future of Christianity, 90–102
Psychology of Italian and Yugo-Slav, 889–898

RAILWAY strike, A volunteer driver's story of the, 851–858
Rats and farming, 130–142
Rees (Sir J. D.), Franchise and Functions in India, 171–180
Reincarnation and astral life, 297–308
Religion as the Basis of Social Reconstruction, 920–929
Religious outlook, Plea for a wider, 930–944
Reviewers and critics, lost art of 'slating,' 123–129
Richards (H. Grahame), Mexican Anarchy and British Inaction, 899–909
Rowe (Nicholas), Poet Laureate, editor of Shakespeare, 266–279
Rowland-Brown (Lilian), The Boys of George Eliot, 859–869
Rural rats and plague, 130–142
Russia under Bolshevism and Germanism, 747–759, 783–788
Russian peasants' land hunger, 881–8
Russian Problem, 426–443
Russian Revolution, lessons, 103–110

ST. Quentin battle, Story of British Fifth Army at, 971–986, 1026–41
Saunders (George), Peace according to Herr Erzberger—1914, 18–23
Scandal of our Milk Supply, 554–566
Scandinavian Forests and Future Timber Supplies, 713–730
Scheldt, Freedom of, Belgium and Holland and the, 585–594
Scott (Leslie), Grave Industrial Problem: Output and Reward, 812–823
Scramble for the Balkans, 640–653
Selling the Nation's Heirlooms, 262–26–
Serbia To-day and To-morrow, 1162 1169
Sex and the Soul, 280–296
Shakespeare (William) and the Earl of Derby, 79–89
Shakespeare's First Critical Editor, 266–279
Signature of Peace, After the, 24–33
Sinnett (A. P.), Our Visits to this World, 297–308
Skilbeck (William Wray), 201; Tributes from some Friends, 595–608
Smith (Constance), The Washington Labour Conference, 772–782
Smoke abatement, coal shortage, and electricity, 334–354

SOC

Social Evil, America and the, 153–163
Social Reconstruction, Religion as the Basis of, 920–929
Soldier's Vote, Angling for the, 845–850,
Sonnenschein (Prof. E. A.), The German Professors, 321–333
Sparrow (Walter Shaw), The Truth about the Fifth Army at St. Quentin, 971–986, 1026–41
Speeches, 250–261
Spiritualism and traditional Christianity, 930–944; Sir Oliver Lodge and the Catholic Church, 1100–13; Logic and infinite progress, 1096–99
Sport: a Mirror of National Character, 1125–39
Spy scares in war-time, 697–702
Stanley (William), sixth Earl of Derby, did he write Shakespeare's plays? 79–89
Star of Bethlehem and fall of Olympus, 1065–95
State control of education, 535–546
Stebbing (E. P.), Scandinavian Forests and Future Timber Supplies, 713–730
Stephen (Sir Herbert), The Late Lamented Bludgeon, 123–129
Stewart (Prof. Herbert L.), Carlyle and his Critics, 505–514
Stone (Brig.-Gen. F. G.), The Old Unchanged German, 202–209
Strikes and grievances of London and Liverpool police, 410–425
Sullivan (Sir Edward), William Wray Skilbeck, 595–608
Surrey in Literature, 1042–1052

THOMAS (W. Beach), A Better England—not a Worse, 1003–16
Three Times a Prisoner of the Germans, 309–320
Tilby (A. Wyatt), Sex and the Soul, 280–296
Timber supplies, Our future, 713–730
Train Company in France, With a, 567–574
Transport, 'Controlled,' 245–249
Truth about the Fifth Army, at St. Quentin, 917–986, 1026–41
Turks and Armenians and Djemal Pasha, 1151–61
Turks, Cardinal Newman, and Council of Ten, 210–224
Two Thousand Years of Dramatic Criticism, 528–534

YUG

Tzar, The, the Douma, Revolution, and Russian non-resistance, 103–110

UNIVERSITY for training National Defence Forces, 397–409
University Professors of Germany and the War, 321–333
Unknown Star, The: A Christmas Mystery Play, 1065–95

VANCOUVER City and Northern Canada, 469–482
Verner (Col. Willoughby), Gibraltar and Ceuta, 181–187
Versailles Peace Conference, 1–17
View of a Man fresh from Russia, 436–443
Voiture (Vincent) as French Academician and humourist, 164–170

WAR and Peace, Limited or Unlimited? 34–39
War, Aftermath of: Teaching of History and its Consolations, 364–376
War of Ideas, 1114–24
War's aftermath and Peace terms, 1–17
War's crucible for English youth, 797–811
Washington Labour Conference, 772–82
Western education for Eastern students, its drawbacks, 457–468
What of the Navy? 620–630
'White Australia,' and Japanese racial aspirations, 483–492
Wild birds' protection, insect pests, and the farmer, 910–919
Wilson (President), League of Nations ideals, and Peace Treaty, 24–33, 1180–38
Windham Papers, Some Unpublished, 665–676
With a Train Company in France, 567–574
Women after the War, 836–844
Wyatt (Harold F.), After the Signature, 24–33; William Wray Skilbeck, 595–608; Peril of Bolshevism, 747–759

YOUNG (Norwood), Ex-Emperor William and Napoleonic Precedent, 575–584
Young (Rev. C. H.), Australia and the Empire, 483–492
Young Men of England, 797–811
Yugo-Slavs and Italians, 889–898

PRINTED BY
SPOTTISWOODE, BALLANTYNE & CO. LTD.
LONDON, COLCHESTER AND ETON, ENGLAND